Media Center Hours

Monday-Thursday: 7:45-3:30

Friday: 7:45-3:15

The Media Center is open during high school WEB and lunch to students with a pass from a teacher.

What you can expect this year from the library:

You'll come to the Media Center one time per month for a lesson and activity and book check-outs.

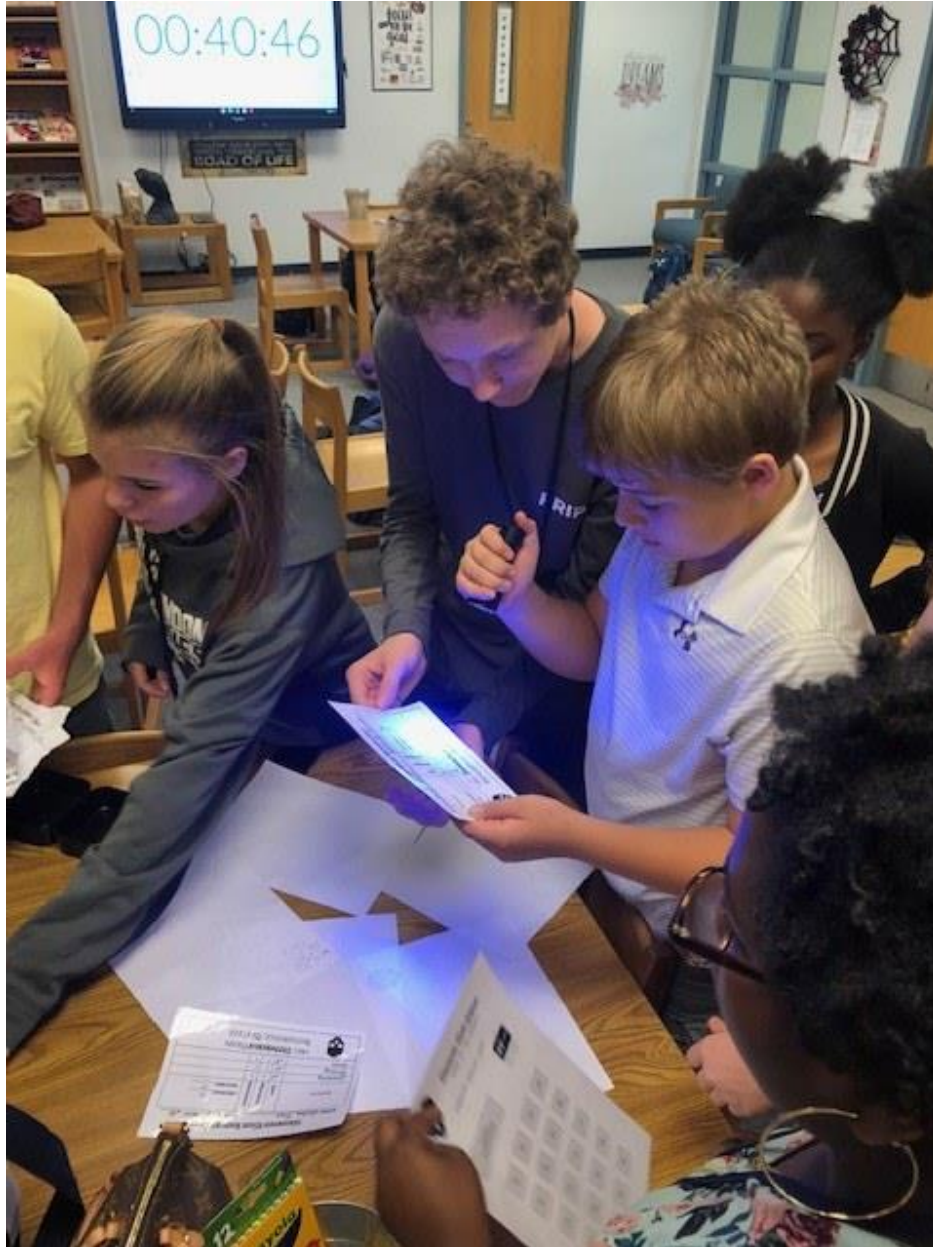

Since books are due every two weeks, you will come every two weeks to check out or renew books.

We will focus on digital and information literacy.

I'll also talk you into one or more books to ENJOY reading! :)

- You may come any time to return, renew, or check out books with a PASS from a teacher.
 - You may come at any time to work on a computer with a PASS from a teacher. (School work only, please. No social media or games.)

Fun in the Media Center...

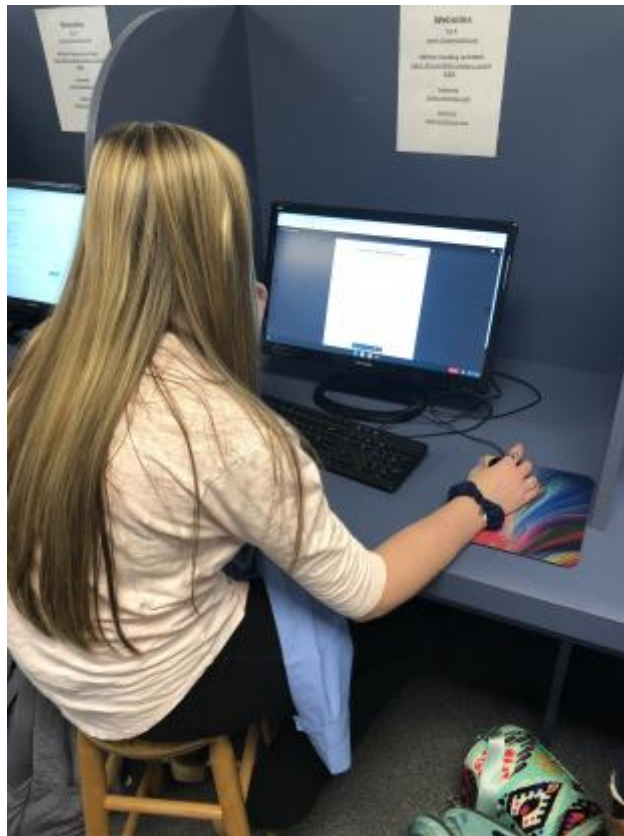

"Lessons" in the library aren't always traditional. You'll do book craft projects, escape rooms, blackout poetry, board games, and maybe even solve Rubik's Cubes! (Plus, you'll hear about GREAT books!)

Each month, we offer a Book of the Month Challenge. Read a book in the following genres, plus an additional book, and see Mrs. Johnson for the book form. Prizes are awarded monthly!

- August: Student Choice
- September: Realistic Fiction
- October: Horror

- November: Science Fiction
- December: Historical Fiction
- January: Fantasy
- February: Romance OR Sports
- March: Suspense/Mystery
- April: Biography

BIG BOOKS: a video for your enjoyment

Books are located just past the tables.

FICTION books are on the LEFT and are arranged by genre (and also in alphabetical order by author's last name within each genre).

NONFICTION books are located on the RIGHT.

Book Policies

Books can be checked out for 2 weeks at a time.

A late fee of 5 cents per day is charged for late books.

Let's do the math:

If you have 2 books checked out and those 2 books are 4 days late, and the fee is 5 cents per day, you will owe 20 cents for one book (1 book x 4 days) and 20 cents for the other book, for a total of 40 cents.

These fees can add up quickly, so please be mindful of your due dates!

You may renew your book at any time before the due date (with a pass) to avoid late fees!

Please take care of the books you borrow.
